19 YEARS FOR CARLTON; MOB ATTACKS HIM

Bigamist Hurried to Sing Sing as Soon as Sentence Is Passed.

JEERED AT AND CURSED.

Deputy Sheriff Falls One Man in Crowd that Surrounds the Prisoner.

A mob of 1,000 excited men and boys gathered around Frederick E. Carlton, bigamist, thief and suspected murderer, in front of the Borough Hall, Brooklyn, to-day cursed and jeered him and threw decayed fruit at him as he stood shackled to a deputy sheriff waiting for a car which was to take him on the first stage of his journey to Sing Sing. He had just been sentenced by Judge Aspinwall to nineteen years in prison at hard labor.

So threatening was the attitude of the crowd that the Deputy Sheriff felt one overbearing man with his first. The mob chased the car clear to the bridge, and as many as could and room climbed aboard to escort Carlton to Manhattan. Some of them went all the way to the Grand Central Station.

Judge Aspinwall, in imposing sentence, said that he was sorry he could not send Carlton to the electric chair. The sentences covered one conviction of bigamy, two pleas of guilty of grand larceny and one conviction of grand larceny in the first degree.

Carlton entered the court-room with a jaunty step to receive his sentence. He carried a battered straw hat in his right hand and a long pipe in his left. The pipe he placed in his pocket as he was led before the bench.

His counsel, Mr. Bennett, put in a plea of insanity on the ground that Carlton is suffering from an acute form of dementia praecox, and would die in a few days. The plea was rejected. District Attorney Carr opposed the idea of insanity.

The law provides that when a man is convicted for the first time his sentence must be indeterminate. Carlton has never been convicted of a crime until he was placed on trial in Brooklyn last week and convicted four times in one day. Mr. Clarke said that if the sentence for the first conviction—that of bigamy—was made indeterminate it might bring up legal questions that would invalidate the other punishments. He suggested that sentence on the first conviction be suspended.

Judge Aspinwall accepted the suggestion. Then he sentenced Carlton to serve five years on the second charge of bigamy, ten years on the charge of grand larceny and four years on the remaining charge of bigamy.

EGGERS IN RAID; HAS NO WARRANT.

Acting Capt. Eggers with six men in plain clothes raided an alleged pool-room at Nos. 114 and 116 West Fifty-third street this afternoon. Eugene Blumenthal, the reputed proprietor, and five other men were arrested. The names of 30 patrons who were found in the place were taken, but they were not arrested. The prisoners were taken to Police Headquarters.

Capt. Eggers had no warrant. He had to smash in three doors to gain admission to the inner room, where the crowd was.

Blumenthal appealed for an injunction restraining the police from interfering with his place a short time ago, but they refused. The action of Capt. Eggers, who is under direct orders from Commissioner McAdams in raising without a warrant, indicates that the policy of Inspector Schmeltzer is intended.

Officers and Evans also.

BY ALLEN SANGREE.

(Special to The Evening World.)
The Detroit Tigers defeated the New Yorks in a featureless and uninteresting game this afternoon, the first of a double-header, by a score of 7 to 3. Chesbro started in for Griff and showed no form whatever, and he seemed to have lost control or speed, and the fans wondered why.

Detroit started and accumulated six runs off the once terror of all batters in three innings, when "Doc" Newton took the reins and allowed but one more tally. In the second game "Burr" Hogg, the Pueblo Kid, went against Eubank, Armour's newest twirler.

First Inning.
McIntyre began with a clean hit to left. Coughlin fielded Lindsay's bunt and threw a wild first. Schaefer doubled to left, scoring McIntyre and Lindsay. Crawford filed out to Hahn. Kison reached Eubank. Schaefer fanned. Hahn was out. Coughlin to Lindsay. Keeler flied out to Cobb. Dougherty rapped a single to right. Dougherty was out trying to get home on Laporte's hard single to right. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.
Laporte threw O'Leary out. Drill drove a single to centre. Eubank singled to left. Keeler got under a long fly from McIntyre. Lindsay fanned out. NO RUNS.

Chase cracked out a beautiful two-bagger in right. Schaefer handled O'Driscoll's bolt. Connor had a good eye and walked. Eubank fielded Cockman's bounce and touched Chase coming home. McIntyre pulled down a long fly from Hogg. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.
Hahn made really a wonderful catch from Schaefer, getting the ball over his left shoulder on a foul run. O'Driscoll made a nice play off Crawford. Cockman was on the job on a clever trip from Cobb. NO RUNS.

Hahn flied out. Schaefer took an easy fly from Keeler. Dougherty flied to Crawford. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.
Coughlin opened with a rap through short. Coughlin went to second on a passed ball. Hogg took a bounce from O'Leary. On a wild pitch Coughlin scored. Drill got a scratch hit over second. (Continued on Second Page.)

BY FRANK W. THORP.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BELMONT PARK, N. Y., Oct. 2.—There was room for eighty bookmakers in the big ring at Belmont Park this afternoon, and from No. 1 to No. 86 of the "Mets" who had drawn were given seats. The fifteen outsiders, who have been gradually given seats in the sacred circles, were in their accustomed places.

Eleven of the "Mets" were shut out from doing business, among the eleven being St. Lichtenstein and George Roles, big operators. Luckily two books declined to do business and then St. was enabled to squeeze in. The other

PENNSY MAY LOSE STAR PUNTER.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Marshall Reynolds, the star half-back and captain of this year's football team of the University of Pennsylvania, may not be able to play this fall. Reynolds was graduated last June from the Law School, and he desired this year to take a special course of study. Dean Lewis, of the Law School, refused to allow him to matriculate as the school has no post-graduate course.

The studies Reynolds picked out for a special course, Dean Lewis states, did not seem likely to benefit him and he could not allow him to return. Reynolds is probably the best punter in the country and his loss would be a severe blow to the Pennsylvania eleven.
